

Law Society of Saskatchewan Continuing Professional Development

Focus On: Labour Law

This seminar provides an exclusive opportunity for a focus on labour law. Join these experienced practitioners as they discuss hot topics in labour law issues including changes to Bill 85, an update on The Occupational Health and Safety Act, a union and employer perspective of The Trade Union Act, followed by an in-depth analysis of The Labour Standards Act proceedings. This seminar hosts thought-provoking labour law topics presented from every perspective. Don't miss this opportunity!

Topics include:

Bill 85

The presenters will discuss existing provisions and statutes and identify changes to provisions and statutes.

Occupation Health and Safety Update

This discussion will provide an overview of legislative changes including items such as the ability of Occupational Health and Safety officers to issue fines, the increase in employer obligations, harassment, and prime contractor designations.

The Trade Union Act

This presentation provides a two-sided discussion of the union and employer's perspective of The Trade Union Act.

The Labour Standards Act Proceedings

This presentation provides a three-person discussion including the perspective of a lawyer, adjudicator, and the Labour Standards office. The presenters will provide an intensive look at the changes, a discussion of how the process works, how to challenge a labour standards hearing, common misconceptions and more.
