

Consent to Release of Information and Declaration for the Purpose of Appointments

I submit my name to the Law Society of Saskatchewan for consideration to be appointed to a position.

In order to facilitate consideration of my application, I HEREBY CONSENT to the release of information related to my regulatory and complaints and discipline history and any active complaints or pending discipline proceedings from the Law Society of Saskatchewan to the Nominations Committee and Board (Benchers).

- Please note: The existence of a minor or dated criminal or regulatory matter in an applicant's history is not a determinative factor. All information provided by applicants including information as to how an applicant has conducted themselves since moving on from any past criminal or regulatory difficulties will be considered.

Further, in order to assist the Law Society of Saskatchewan in its exercise of due diligence regarding my application, I SOLEMNLY DECLARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. I am not aware of any conflict of interest that would arise (or be perceived) as a result of my appointment to this position (reference section 3.4 of the Codes of Professional Conduct).
2. I am not, in either my personal capacity, as member of a partnership or as owner of a closely held corporation, a defendant in unresolved litigation nor am I the subject of outstanding demands that may result in litigation with the exception of the following listed matters (include or attach a list or litigation search if necessary):
